Danny Brown Works For NBC-TV; Attends School in California

DANNY BROWN, 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Brown of Harrisburg, is working for NBC-TV in Hollywood.

Danny's been employed by the big outfit for only three weeks; so naturally he hasn't made big strides toward reaching the top. But he's there and he's been seen by the viewing public.

A student at UCLA since the second semester began last month, he's going to school in the evenings and working at NBC-TV from 7 a. m. until 4 p. m.

He's talked to his parents by telephone and says he is doing page work. That covers a lot of territory but the work has sent him out before the cameras several times. In fact, his parents and others have seen him come out as an attendant on the afternoon Queen for a Day show.

At UCLA Danny is studying dramatics and is also taking private lessons in speech. During the time that he's been out there he has taken a screen test with an independent studio which is planning to make some films for television showing. He's also done some script work.

Danny got into dramatics at Nashville, Tenn., where he was a student at Vanderbilt University. He worked in the Nashville Community playhouse and also did college dramatics, directing one presentation. He did eight weeks of summer stock at Kentucky lake in 1956.

DID YOU KNOW THAT?: A mixup in Ministries may leave Czechoslovakia without cuff links? That sounds a bit silly, but that's what the magazine, American Machinist, declares.

It puts it like this: Responsibility for manufacturing cuff links was not specified in the present five-year plan. It was thought to be a job for the Ministry of Domestic Trade. This Ministry considered the responsibility should go to the Ministry of Industry.

Unfortunately, it was not stated whether it should go to the Ministry of Heavy Industry or the Ministry of Light Industry. Meanwhile, Czechs can try keeping their shirt cuffs together with red tape, the magazine suggests.

Firm Acquires Options on 12,000 Acres Of Land Including Some Coal Reserves

EVANSVILLE, Ind. — A second smelter operation by the Aluminum Company of America in the Sturgis, Ky., area is becoming a strong possibility.

Announcement was made Wednesday that Alcoa, which now has under construction a 150,000-ton smelter and a 350,000-kilowatt power plant in Warrick county, Ind., on the Ohio river, has acquired options on about 12,000 acres of land in Union and Crittenden counties in Kentucky, including some coal reserves.

In confirming these acquisitions a company spokesman said that "these options insure additional fuel reserves for future use and also provide a possible smelter site in accordance with the company's long-range planning."

Alcoa's announcement yesterday was the second this month relating to land acquisition in the Sturgis area. On March 4 the company stated it had bought from Seneca Coal Co., a Peabody subsidiary, an unspecified acreage of land, Mine No. 2 coal reserves and other assets formerly owned by the Poplar Ridge Coal Co.

The other assets referred to include a 10-mile railroad linking Mine 2 with a tipple on the Ohio river. It is understood this railroad traverses a large segment of the land Alcoa has under option.

The option rights acquired in the Sturgis area by Alcoa were secured for the company by T. B. McHatten of Marissa, Ill., who started operating in the two counties last fall, paying an average of $5 an acre for the options.

Just how far Alcoa's plans have been developed has not been ascertained. But it was indicated the process of taking title to the land will be a time-consuming process.

The fact that electricity is a major component in the smelting of aluminum and the large coal reserves the firm is acquiring in Kentucky makes it a certainty that when the firm starts a smelter it also will build a power plant.

Employment wise, payrolls at the Sturgis operation would compare favorably with those projected for Warrick Works — about 1,200 production workers. In addition, there will be a major mining operation, presumably conducted under contract by a mining company.

S. O. Turner, 83, of Coalbank Springs Church Area Dies

He was a well known farmer of the Coalbank Springs church community and was a member of the church, having served many years as its Sunday school superintendent. He was a member of the Crab Orchard L. O. O. F.

House Labor Committee Votes To Probe Union Welfare Funds

Stratton Program

Introduce Bills Setting 65-Mile Speed Limit, Doubling State Police

Higher Drivers License Fees for School Training

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — Gov. William G. Stratton's highway safety program—including a flat 65 mile an hour speed limit, doubling of the state police force and an increase in the drivers license fee to be used for high school driver training programs—was introduced today in the House.

The series of seven bills introduced by administration leaders carried out recommendations made by the governor in a special message to the Legislature.

The bills would: —Set an absolute speed limit of 65 miles an hour daytime for cars and 55 miles an hour at night, with authority for the state highway to zone "superhighways" at 70 miles an hour.

Truck limits would be 50 miles an hour for heavy vehicles day and night and 55 miles for light trucks day and night. Buses would be limited to 65 daytime and 55 at night.

Also, county boards could set limits for county roads.

—Increase the state police force from its present 600-man strength to 1,100, with another 100 state policemen to be added for use on toll roads now being constructed. The Toll Road Commission would pay the cost of these 100 state policemen.

Set Uniform Tests

—Increase the present $1 drivers license fee to $3 with the additional money to be used as state aid to high school driver training programs, under a formula of $30 in state aid per pupil taking driver training courses.

The bills would appropriate $5 million dollars to the superintendent of public instruction to pay school claims under the program, plus $65,000 to administer the program.

The additional fees, it was estimated, would bring in $40 million over the next 10 years for driver training programs.

—Set uniform standards for chemical tests for drunken driving.

—Require re-examination and re-licensing of drivers when they reach the age of 70.

Spokesmen for Stratton said sponsors of a Senate speed limit bill, already introduced in opposition to the governor's ideas, have agreed conditionally to amend their bill in line with the administration program.

The Senate bill would set limits similar to those asked by the governor, but would make exceeding the limits only "prima facie" evidence of a speed violation.

This means that a driver who exceeds the "prima facie" limits would be able to argue and prove in court that his speed was "reasonable and proper" according to the conditions of the road.

Under Stratton's bill, exceeding the limits would be absolute evidence of a violation regardless of road conditions.

The Senate sponsors have agreed to amend their "prima facie" bill if the motor vehicle laws commission set up by the 1955 Legislature agrees to the amendments. The commission originally proposed the "prima facie" limits.

Lions to Award Scholarship

For the second consecutive year the Harrisburg Lions club will make a $50 scholarship to Southern Illinois University available to a Harrisburg Township high school senior.

The Lions club, in cooperation with the HTHS, awarded a scholarship last year, based on an examination in American history and at this week's meeting the club voted to continue the scholarship award.

The Lions club will have a Ladies Night program Monday, April 8.

Academy Awards

Ingrid Bergman, Yul Brynner Win Top Oscars

HOLLYWOOD — Ingrid Bergman, a self-made exile from the United States because of flaming headlines seven years ago, won the world's highest acting honor, the Oscar, Wednesday night as the best actress of 1956.

Yul Brynner, the bedroom-eyed matinee idol as bald as the Oscar he clasped, smilingly accepted the 29th annual Academy Award as best actor for playing the arrogant, child-like ruler of Siam in "The King and I."

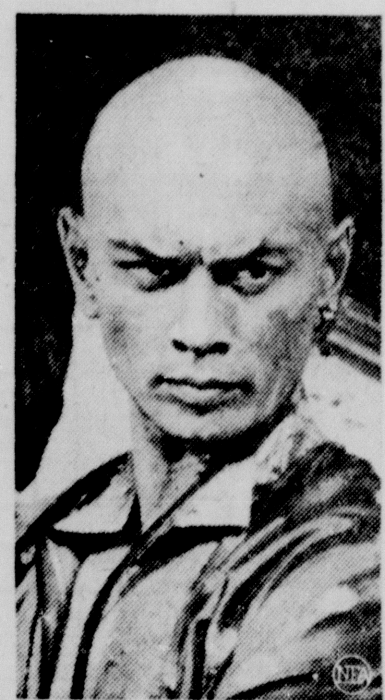

Veteran Anthony Quinn, who portrayed artist Paul Gauguin in "Lust for Life," was cited as best supporting actor in a surprise upset. Dorothy Malone, the man-hungry rich girl of "Written on the Wind," received a gold statuette as supporting actress, and touchingly dedicated it to her 16-year-old brother, struck dead by lightning two years ago.

But it was the award to the stately Miss Bergman for her role in "Anastasia" that captured the spirits of the 3,500 film stars and cheering fans who jammed into Pantages Theater on Hollywood Blvd. for the town's annual back-patting event.

Miss Bergman, now in Paris, won another Oscar 13 years ago for "Gaslight." Seven years ago she left this country and her husband to be, Italian Director Roberto Rossellini, a child. After their controversial marriage, she

Chairman Says Purpose Is to Protect Rights of Workers Who Contribute

WASHINGTON — The House Labor Committee voted today to investigate union welfare funds to prevent their "pillaging" by racketeers.

The House committee's decision came as the Senate Rackets Committee recessed temporarily its investigation of the giant Teamsters Union.

Chairman Graham A. Barden (D-N.C.) said the House investigation would be no "sideshow" to the Senate inquiry.

Nor, he added, will it be "punitive" to labor.

Barden said the purpose will be to draft legislation to protect the rights of workers in welfare funds to which they are required to contribute. In many states, he said, these funds are inadequately policed. He said these funds total perhaps more than $35 billion.

No date was set for the opening hearing of the House investigation, but Barden said the committee staff has already begun preparations.

May Call Lewis

Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey (D-W. Va.) said John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, should be called to testify on "how to buy banks instead of nylons" with union welfare funds. The mine workers own the National Bank of Washington.

Nathan W. Shefferman, Chicago labor relations consultant and business man, testified Wednesday he spent $85,000 in Teamsters money in purchases involving nylon hose, knee drawers, and love seats.

Meanwhile, Dave Beck's attorney said he expects the Teamster Union boss to be indicted for income tax violation "at any time now."

The attorney, Arthur D. Condon, told the United Press he believes a federal grand jury in Seattle will act soon against Beck, who said he has been warned he faces income tax prosecution.

However, in Seattle, Federal Dist. Atty. Charles Moriarty said he knew of no forthcoming indictment against Beck. He said a regular federal grand jury will be summoned in June "in the normal course of events."

Beck, excused as a witness while the committee took a two-week breather, headed for Seattle today and the palatial home which plays a big part in his troubles with the Internal Revenue Service and the racket committee.

He bore the grim promise of Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) that the committee will do its best to punish him for "utter contempt" of Congress.

McClellan, who said "proper propriety" prevented him from expressing his real opinion of Beck, seared the paunchy union boss with an angry concluding statement at the close of Wednesday's hearing.

Executive Council Meets

He said Beck had shown "arrogant contempt for the million and a half members of honest laboring people in the Teamsters' Union . . . flagrant disregard and disrespect for honest and reputable unionism . . . and utter contempt for this committee for the Congress of the United States and for his government."

The chairman sent a copy of Beck's testimony to the Justice Department — and said the Internal Revenue Service could have one too if it was interested.

Beck faced yet another hazard. The AFL-CIO Executive Council meets here Friday to consider what action to take against the Teamster boss for his alleged misuse of union funds and for invoking the Fifth Amendment.

Two Raids by State, County City Officers

State police, city and county officers last night joined in two raids on Saline county establishments.

City police joined state officers in a raid on the place known as the Athletic Club of East Walnut at Lewis street and Guy Daniel and five persons who were inside the building were jailed.

In police magistrate court this morning Daniel pleaded guilty to charges of operating a gambling house and gaming and was fined $200 and costs by Police Magistrate Vern Joyner Jr. Guthrie Kent, one of the other five arrested, pleaded guilty to a charge of illegal sale of liquor and was fined $100 and costs. The other four jailed were fined for disorderly conduct.

The sheriff's force joined the state officers for a raid on what is known as the colored American War Dads club at Carrier Mills and Silas Gordon, who said he was the bartender, was arrested.

The Carrier Mills raid came first, between 9 and 10 p. m.

Sheriff William T. Barrett said that two members of the state police from out of this area, wearing civilian clothing, obtained a liquor "buy" in the place, after which State Police Sergeant Murray Stinson, State Policeman Adolph Sweat, Sheriff Barrett and his deputies, Everett N. Sneed, Charles Donelson and Jeff Stricklin, entered.

Barrett said five cases of beer in a cooler, an automatic shotgun and playing cards were found and confiscated.

The sheriff stated that Gordon told the officers the place was owned and operated by Willie Goodman.

About 11 p. m. the two plain clothes state policemen entered the Harrisburg place and bought two beers, Chief of Police Ross Lane said. They ordered a pint of whiskey but before they could get it Officers Stinson and Sweat entered the room.

Lane, who followed up with City Policemen Floyd Kimbro and John Dunn, said that there was $65 on a poker table at the time of the raid.

Confiscated were the money, some dice, cards, some beer and some of the furnishings.

Daniel, who was operating the place at the time, and five occupants of the place were arrested and spent the night in the county jail.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Friends Of Jimmy Hoffa Collected $1,000,000 In Commissions From Teamsters Welfare Fund; Congressional Committee Which Revealed This Was Stopped Cold; Senator From Texas Has Interesting Insurance Record.

WASHINGTON. — One of the most significant backstage developments in the Teamster probe is that scandalous facts had been unearthed regarding Teamster czar Jimmy Hoffa by the House Government Operations committee in the early days of the Eisenhower administration. Then suddenly the probe was stopped.

Postmaster General Summerfield said he didn't stop it. The Republicans at that time controlled Congress. They stopped the probe. The individual GOP congressmen in charge of the probe didn't want to stop it, complained bitterly and publicly about the stoppage. But they were stopped anyway.

Here is what they had discovered at the time they were stopped.

Jimmy Hoffa, together with the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, placed almost $20,000,000 of welfare funds with the Union Insurance Agency, Inc. between 1948-52. The partners operating this agency were Rose and Allen Dorfman, wife and son of Hoffa's intimate friend Paul Dorfman, who in turn is boss of the Waste Material Handlers union in Chicago.

The insurance agency, in turn, placed its business with the Union Casualty Co. and the Union Public Service Co., organized by Leo Perlman, a refugee from Hitler, whose business, thanks largely to the Teamsters' welfare funds, mushroomed overnight.

His companies, in turn, paid Rose and Allen Dorfman and their agency "in excess of $100,000" in "commissions and service fees between October 1949 and June 30, 1953," according to the official finding of the House committee headed by Congressman Clare Hoffman, Michigan Republican.

"It was disclosed that approximately $101,000 in checks payable to Allen Dorfman were not deposited to the agency's bank accounts," the committee also reported.

When the congressmen asked Dorfman if he had paid this or any part of it to Jimmy Hoffa, he refused to answer. Time after time he pleaded the 5th amendment.

It was also disclosed that Perlman's insurance company made fees of $1,200,000 from the Teamsters' and Brotherhood of Electrical Workers' welfare funds. These were funds which individual dues-paying members in Michigan and the central states had entrusted with Hoffa and with the IBEW for investment.

But suddenly, as the congressional committee was striking pay dirt, its operations were mysteriously and abruptly suspended. Said Committee Counsel William F. McKenna: "We were silenced before we could make public certain important financial-legal aspects of the Teamsters' operations."

Note—All this was known as early as 1953, yet no action was taken to suspend Dorfman's Waste Materials Handlers local charter in Chicago.

While the public is watching next week's special Senate election in Texas, the temporary senator from Texas has been using his position to try to block an investigation into his private insurance business. He is William Blakley, appointed by outgoing Gov. Allan Shivers last January to keep the Texas seat warm until the April election.

TEXAS SENATOR'S INSURANCE CO.

Blakley is a soft-spoken Eisenhower Democrat who owns millions in real estate and professes no political ambitions beyond his three-month Senate term. He has behaved like a model stopgap senator, keeping discreetly in the background—with one curious exception. His only significant act has been to harass the Federal Trade Commission over its insurance investigations.

What makes this interesting is that Blakley's own company is under investigation as one of the worst alleged violators. In fact, Blakley personally was named a defendant because of his past habit of dissolving corporations that got in trouble.

Blakley is chairman of the Girardian Insurance company, which the trade commission alleges has been using phony advertising to sell insurance policies. The company deliberately misled policyholders into believing they were entitled to insurance benefits that the fine print in the contract didn't allow, according to the FTC.

"Any examination of Girardian's advertising when contrasted with the actual terms of the policies," charges the FTC, "can lead only to the conclusion that the advertising is false, deceptive, and misleading."

SENATOR'S TWO COMPANIES

Senator Blakley's company was found to be operating out of the back room of another insurance firm, Girard Life Insurance company, which Blakley also owns. To prevent him from avoiding personal responsibility, the FTC took the unusual step of making the senator personally liable.

Before he ever came to the Senate, Blakley had brought indirect pressure on the FTS through such powerful fellow Texans as Senate Democratic leader Lyndon Johnson.

Once Blakley became a senator himself, however, he didn't go through friends. He used the full power of his temporary office to attack the agency that had been investigating him. His most brazen act was to take over the cross-examination of Edward Tait, when he came before the Senate Commerce committee for confirmation to the FTC.

Usually a new senator, particularly one serving only a three-month term, does not butt into a hearing. He is supposed to keep quiet and let his seniors do the questioning.

But Blakley waded into Tait with a barrage of questions and criticism. He challenged the FTC's jurisdiction over insurance cases and accused the FTC of "acting as judge, jury, and prosecutor." He charged that the "FTC had the idea only its own staff was 'competent' to decide whether advertising was deceptive.

Fellow senators were startled at Blakley's unexpected attack. But they didn't know what was behind it. Blakley never bothered to explain that he was a defendant in one of the insurance cases he was complaining about.

His case is still pending before the FTC.

Georgia Resolution Rejected; Legislature Applauds High Court

SPRINGFIELD — A House committee Wednesday threw out a Georgia resolution calling for the impeachment of Chief Justice Earl Warren of the U. S. Supreme Court, and instead approved another praising the high court on its decisions on racial segregation cases.

The House Executive Committee received a resolution from the Georgia Legislature, along with a colored reproduction of the Confederate flag. It called for the impeachment of Warren and other Supreme Court justices who supported the high court decisions on integration cases.

No Bogus Solutions

Growing World Population Wipes Out Economic Gains; Mass Starvation Threat

WASHINGTON — World population is growing at the fastest rate in history.

The population "explosion" already has wiped out many of the economic gains painfully achieved in underdeveloped countries since World War II. If it continues, many scientists believe that the specter of mass starvation soon will begin to stalk large areas of the earth.

"The speed-up in world population growth since 1945 is one of the most ominous developments of our time," said Robert C. Cook, director of the Population Reference Bureau. "It jeopardizes the welfare and even the survival of hundreds of millions of people. It is as great a threat to mankind as the atomic bomb."

Cook said in an interview that "the human race has less time than some people think" to cut the fuse of the "population bomb."

"If present trends continue for 10 years, some areas of the world will face disaster," he said.

Not all experts agree with Cook about the imminence of the overpopulation danger. Some believe that development of new food resources could prevent widespread famine even if the world's population doubled. At the present rate of increase, it will do just that in less than half a century.

The sharp jump in population growth which now is causing alarm in world capitals is, ironically, a by-product of the postwar effort to raise living standards in underdeveloped areas.

It did not result from an increase in birth rates, which have tended to remain stable or decline slowly in most countries, but from a precipitate drop in the death rate as modern techniques of sanitation and medical care were introduced.

The present population of the earth is about 2.7 billion. It has been increasing since World War II at an average rate of 1.5 per cent a year. This is approximately double the rate of increase which prevailed during the preceding century.

"This rate of growth means that the world has 100,000 new mouths to feed each time the sun rises," said Cook. "And most of them are in the countries least able to take on the added burden."

"There is no use looking for bogus solutions," said Cook. "The problem is people having babies. Unless human sex mores can be changed quickly, too-rapid population growth will bring ever-growing misery."

Proposes Merit Military Pay

WASHINGTON — A special committee of the Defense Department has recommended that servicemen be paid on merit rather than seniority.

If adopted, the committee said Tuesday, the nation's military budget could be reduced by $5 billion annually.

Ralph S. Cordiner, president of the General Electric Co. and chairman of the committee, said the proposal would not only "reduce the draft calls" but eventually make them unnecessary.

Cordiner gave "a very positive yes" to a question as to whether the recommendation could reduce the armed services by 200,000 men and still maintain the services' readiness for combat.

He suggested that pay boosts be given to highly skilled service personnel and the number of persons drawing high pay for low-skilled jobs be held down.

He estimated that it would cost $249 million in the next fiscal year and $316 million in the 1959 fiscal year to put the proposal into effect.

CONDUCTS REVIVAL. Rev. Floyd Hale, pastor of the Elizabethtown and Cave-in-Rock Methodist churches, is holding a revival meeting in the First Methodist church at Galatia. The meetings which are held each evening at 7 o'clock, started last Monday and will continue through April 7. Rev. Peter Kunnen, pastor of the Galatia church, announces that there is a special musical program each evening and invites the public to attend the worship services.

Report to Governor

Commission Recommends Annual Sessions of State Legislature

SPRINGFIELD 28—A study commission report today recommended that the Illinois Legislature meet annually, with sessions in alternate years limited to budget matters.

The commission, which was set up in 1955 to study the creation of annual sessions, filed its formal report with Gov. William G. Stratton and the Legislature Wednesday.

Stratton has recommended an annual meeting of the Legislature as part of his program for House reform. The annual session would permit organization of the state budget on a fiscal year basis, rather than on the current two-year basis.

Earlier the House passed the first major bill in Stratton's House reform program, with measures designed to create a new department of financial institutions.

The new department, to be headed by a director appointed by the governor, would regulate and examine banks and similar institutions now under the state auditor and the insurance department.

In addition to banks, the new department would have authority over savings and loan associations, small loan companies, cemetery associations, trust companies, currency exchanges, credit unions and pawn brokers.

The bill includes provision that department personnel are forbidden to have financial interests in the institutions which they examine or regulate. Former State Auditor Orville E. Hodge was found to have an interest in a bank which came under regulation by his office.

The measures, which were passed virtually without opposition, now go to the Senate.

The commission which recommended the constitutional amendment to permit annual sessions of the Legislature, headed by Rep. Peter C. Granata (R-Chicago), said it would introduce in the Legislature a joint resolution to provide such an amendment.

If approved by the Legislature, the proposal would have to be submitted to a referendum in 1958.

Farmers Union Charges State Discrimination

SPRINGFIELD 28—The Illinois Farmers Union today demanded that "discrimination" in the state agricultural extension service be ended.

Ralph S. Bradley, president of the IFU, charged that "the state's extension farm advisers, to all intents and purposes, act as if they were kept and owned by the farm and home bureaus."

Bradley said two thirds of the funds which support the state farm and home extension service are now provided by the state and federal governments.

Illinois agricultural associations spokesmen reported earlier this week the Legislature would be asked to double its present million-dollar annual appropriation for the extension service, and Farm and Home Bureau conferences would be reduced almost $300,000.

Farm and home bureaus last year contributed $1,229,000 to the extension work. An earlier system in which the contributions were made directly to the salaries of home and farm advisors has been changed because of federal objections.

Killed by Train

GARY, Ind. 28 — William Robinson, 9, Gary, was struck and killed by a Pennsylvania Railway passenger train when he ran into the train's path.

Police said witnesses told them the Robinson boy was playing near a railroad crossing in Gary Wednesday when he suddenly ran onto the tracks.

Fined

Jimmy J. Collins of Sturgis, Ky., was arrested by city police last night and charged with drunken driving, pleaded guilty to the charge when arraigned before Police Magistrate Vern Joyner Jr. Wednesday and was fined $200 and costs.

U.S. Planes, Iran Troops Seek to Rescue Woman

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Three U. S. military mission planes joined Iranian troops and police today in a desperate air and ground operation to rescue a pretty American woman kidnapped by bandits who killed her husband and another American man. There were indications she is still alive.

Vague and fragmentary reports reaching Tehran, 800 miles northwest of the town of Iranshahr where the attack took place, said the kidnapped American woman left a trail of torn bits of paper. American officials said they believed the bandits would hold her for ransom.

There also were indications that the attack by desperadoes in the remote and arid region of Baluchistan in southeastern Iran was directed against this country's new close ties to the United States in the Baghdad Pact.

The attack took place Sunday. Kevin M. Carroll, 37, Issaquah, Wash., and Brewster A. Wilson, 35, Portland, Ore., officials working on U. S. Point Four aid programs for Iran, were killed. Carroll's wife, Anita, was kidnapped. Two Iranian drivers also were killed.

The three planes attached to the U. S. military mission in Tehran joined the search for the bandit gang after the Shah of Iran personally ordered full mobilization of police resources to rescue Mrs. Carroll and capture the killers.

Ask $1.5 Million For Boy's Injuries

CHICAGO (AP)—A boy, 9, today sought $1,500,000 in accident injury damages from the Commonwealth Edison Co. and the Northern Illinois Gas Co.

The plaintiff, Michael Finn, lost parts of both legs in an explosion at a hardware store here. His brother, Robert, 12, was killed in the blast.

The suit, filed Wednesday in Superior Court here, charged that Edison Co. workers hit a gas main while digging a hole for a new utility pole. The gas firm was charged with failing to send experienced men to the scene to evacuate the store when the odor of gas was detected.

Fail to Locate Eldorado Woman For Father's Rites

ELDORADO, Ill. (AP)—Efforts to locate an Eldorado woman, thought to be vacationing in Florida, before the burial of her father have failed.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, Eldorado, left Saturday night for a short vacation in Florida. She had watched over her father, James Stevenson, 65, almost daily for six years while he had been ill.

Stevenson died suddenly Sunday. The family tried to locate the Smiths through the state police and other ways but failed. Her father was buried Wednesday without Mrs. Smith's knowledge.

The family believe the Smiths are vacationing in the St. Petersburg, Fla., area.

Demos Form Group to Buy Ike a 'Copter

ALMBERTVILLE, N. J. (AP)—Four local Democrats announced Wednesday they have formed a committee to buy President Eisenhower a helicopter for his personal use.

The Democrats, St. John Terrell, Ed Anskavich, Arthur Gerold and Wood Spears, said the idea of the committee was inspired by the "embarrassing question" asked at Mr. Eisenhower's news conference Wednesday.

A reporter asked the President whether in the interest of economy, he would be willing to give up the helicopters which would get him to the golf course "a little faster." The White House had announced some time ago so that two Air Force helicopters would be used to fly the President between the White House and the airport as a time-saving measure. But no mention was made then about possible trips to the golf course.

Mr. Eisenhower, in one of his rare displays of red-faced displeasure, replied:

"Well, I don't think much of the question because no helicopters have been procured for me to go to a golf course."

The Democrats said they believed Mr. Eisenhower was making the great personal sacrifice and he should not be deprived of such conveniences.

Air National Guard Plane Crashes; 2 Killed

FARMINGTON, Ill. (AP)—Two men were killed Wednesday night when an Air National Guard plane crashed on a farm near here during a routine training flight.

The victims were identified as Lt. George Turner, 20, Metamora, a member of the Air Force Reserve, and Lt. Leonard H. Davis Jr., 21, Canton, a regular member of the Illinois Air National Guard.

Their plane, a T28, crashed on the Harry Stoller farm at nearby Trivoli. The wreckage was so badly scattered the bodies were not discovered until about two hours after the wreck.

The plane was assigned to the 169th Fighter Squadron of the Air National Guard based at Peoria Municipal Airport. Officials said the cause of the crash was not known.

Former Agent Charged with Bribe Attempt

CHICAGO (AP)—A former Chicago agent for the Department of Internal Revenue today faced charges of trying to bribe two other agents with as much as $150,000 to fix an income tax case.

A federal grand jury late Wednesday returned an indictment against Joseph F. Kelly of Van Nuys, Calif. He formerly lived in Chicago before resigning from the service last Nov. 2.

Howard Gliedmann, special assistant attorney general, said Kelly, 38, had admitted the bribes. Gliedmann charged Kelly offered a $100,000 bribe to Raymond F. Garrigan, a special agent in the Chicago tax district audit office, on Jan. 18, 1956, and two days later boosted the offer to $150,000, including another agent, Donald Goetz, in this proposal.

Gliedmann said the name of the taxpayer on whose behalf the bribe was allegedly offered was omitted from the indictment because he is a defendant in another case. He said the indictment stemmed from an investigation of the Chicago tax department.

The Justice Department ordered the investigation after the district's former director, Ernest J. Sauber, was indicted for trying to help a defunct candy company dodge its income taxes. Gliedmann was sent here from Washington, D. C. to investigate other alleged misdealings among the district's agents.

Kelly joined the service in 1945 and soon became a member of its "racket squad." He became a special agent in 1955. Kelly's bond was set at $5,000 and officials said they would either demand his return to Chicago or set the trial in California. If convicted, he could get a maximum sentence of six years in prison and be fined $750,000.

House Completes Action on Continuing Corp., Excise Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House today completed congressional action on a bill to continue present corporation income and certain excise tax rates until July 1, 1958.

The House, without objection, accepted a Senate amendment continuing the higher rates for 15 months, instead of the one-year extension previously approved by the House.

The bill, yielding about $3 billion a year in tax revenues, now goes to the White House.

In addition to corporation tax rates, the measure applies to sales taxes on liquor, cigarettes, automobiles and auto parts.

Red China Frees American Priest

HONG KONG (AP)—Communist China released an American Catholic priest, the Rev. Fulgence Gross, Omaha, Neb., from prison today six years after his arrest.

Reached by long-distance telephone from Hong Kong to Shanghai, Father Gross told the United Press he expected to get out of the country "within one or two weeks."

"I intend to get in touch with the British consulate about when and how I am going to leave China," he said.

He was the second imprisoned American to be released by the Chinese Reds this year. Eight other Americans still are behind bars in Communist China.

Lutheran missionary Paul A. MacKensen was released March 7 but has remained in Shanghai.

Of the eight remaining American prisoners, four are Catholic priests and four are civilians. Two of the priests, Jesuits John A. Houle, Glendale, Calif., and Charles McCarthy, San Francisco, are scheduled to be released June 15 when their prison terms end.

Court-Martial Ordered for Marine Officer

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (AP)—The Marine Corps today ordered a general court-martial for an officer accused of assaulting a private who was a key witness in another recent trial at this recruit training base.

Maj. Ralph Wood, public information officer here, said "charges against 1st Lt. William O. Conroy, Queens, N. Y., have been referred to a general court-martial for trial."

Wood said Conroy would be charged with "conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman."

The charges resulted from an alleged altercation involving Conroy and Pvt. David L. Porter, Hartford, Vt., on the night of March 13. The incident occurred after Porter's charges against a drill instructor had led to Conroy's suspension from duty.

Troop 23 Completes First Aid Classes

Francis L. Jahn, scoutmaster for Troop 23, announces that three classes in first aid were completed Tuesday night. Mrs. Geneva Altmire, counselor, was the instructor, assisted by Mrs. Naomi Parish and Joseph Hollingsworth. These classes were held in the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Altmire announces that a new troop, No. 13, has formed and will have a class in first aid taught by Mrs. Kenneth Wiley tonight at the Christian church.

Illinois House Urges Congress to Reject School Aid

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The Illinois House today approved a resolution urging Congress to turn down President Eisenhower's proposed state aid to schools program.

The House approved the resolution by voice vote. It now goes to the Senate.

The House Executive Committee Wednesday voted approval of the resolution after a number of Republicans to "repeal" the President. The vote was 27-77.

Opposition to the federal aid proposal centered around the fact that Illinois would have to pay much more in taxes and matching funds than it would get back in federal aid.

An estimated 2,000,000 persons visit Minnesota's state parks each year.

CARL TUTTLE
DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR SUPERVISOR OF HARRISBURG TOWNSHIP

To The Voters of Galatia Township, Saline County, Illinois

I am a candidate for the office of Constable in the election to be held on Tuesday, April 2nd, 1957.

I am the son of the late Joseph F. Watson of Galatia Township. I was born and reared on the farm in the Ebenezer community and have always had to work hard for a living.

I have never been arrested or had to pay a fine! During World War Two I spent eighteen months in the service of the U. S. Army and 9½ months of this time was served overseas.

I have worked for the State of Illinois as guard at the Menard prison and Joliet prison for a period of four years. I feel that I am qualified to hold the office that I am seeking.

Due to me having to work every day, it will be impossible for me to see each voter personally, but anything said or done in my behalf will be deeply appreciated, and I earnestly solicit your VOTE.

Not Guilty Plea Entered for Young Couple on Charge of Slaying Marine

SALEM, Ill. — A not guilty plea was entered Wednesday for a young honeymooning couple who remained silent when arraigned in court on a charge of murdering a hitch-hiking Indiana Marine.

Robert Baker, 26, Wormleysburg, Pa., and his wife, Trudy Jo, 16, They are charged with murder in the death of Pvt. Larry M. Kirk, 21, Winslow, Ind., last December. Kirk was shot in the back and his body dumped in a weed patch near Flora, Ill.

An estimated 300 persons packed the Marion County courtroom at Salem for the couple's arraignment.

They remained silent when Dove asked for their plea. Then William Miller, Salem, one of the three court-appointed defense attorneys, told the judge that the Bakers had been advised to "stand mute." The judge then entered a "not guilty" plea for the couple.

The judge said court would be in session again April 12 and that a trial date would probably be set at that time. He denied a defense motion to quash the murder indictment, but ordered—on a motion by the defense attorneys—that they be provided with copies of any alleged statements made by the Bakers to authorities.

The young couple, indicted on a murder charge on March 1 are being held without bond.

The assessor's duty to the citizens of this township is to fairly and impartially assess all property on an equal basis so that each citizen will pay his fair share of taxes and no more.

The assessor must also do this in sufficient time to turn over his books to the Board of Review for their work on them so that they will not have to stay in session for a prolonged time.

The Board of Review costs the county a large amount of money if they are required to stay in session for a long period of time, and unless they receive the assessor's books in time they must stay in session until they are completed.

I am 55 years old, married and have 2 children in my home to take care of. I have resided in this township practically all my life and know the importance of saving money for tax payers.

I am a working man, having worked on the railroad since 1922, and will treat everyone fairly and impartially and do my utmost to save the tax payers every cent that I can save them by completing my work in the time allotted for that purpose.

I have taken extension work in accounting and bookkeeping and have served as clerk for the New York Central in keeping books and accounts and am the Treasurer for the New York Central Employees Credit Union and believe that I am competent to accurately make assessments in this township.

Your vote and influence will be deeply appreciated.

Looking At Sports

By BILL MELTON

The annual spring get together of the schools in the Greater Egyptian conference will be held at Shawneetown Friday, April 5, starting at 4 p. m.

There will be competition in volley ball and ping pong, both singles and doubles. A point system involving the games will be used to determine a school winner and a trophy awarded.

At a recent GEC meeting it was voted to hold the annual conference basketball tourney at Ridgeway again this next season. This will make the third consecutive year the tourney has been held at Ridgeway, the only school in the league with a gym of sufficient size to handle the large crowds wishing to attend.

The GEC, a seven-school loop since Vienna withdrew last spring, extended an invitation to Crab Orchard to join but the invitation was declined.

Schools in the GEC are Galatia, Equality, Shawneetown, Ridgeway, Cave-in-Rock, Rosiclare and Pope County.

This professional brand of basketball is unusually exciting, according to reports from a couple of friends of mine.

Was talking to one fan who had listened to the double overtime victory the St. Louis Hawks gained over Minneapolis on Monday night and he said he was so excited that even though the game was over about a quarter after 11 and he was in bed by 11:30, that he was so nervous and excited that it was after 1 a. m. before he finally got to sleep.

Later Tuesday I mentioned the above to another Hawk fan and he revealed that he had to take a pill to get to sleep. Said he also was in bed by 11:30 and when he heard the clock strike midnight and he was still wide awake he knew it was time to get a sleeping pill.

And these two guys aren't newcomers to basketball either. Have been following the sport in person, via the radio and over TV for a long time.

The 143-135 double overtime was just exciting, even to old vets of the game.

High school coaches are having a tough time trying to get their baseball and track teams out-of-doors for practice, but are still hopeful of getting the baseball schedules underway soon.

Bob Dallas, coach at Ridgeway, has announced he plans to open the baseball season Monday, April 8, at Mills Prairie. Other games on the schedule: April 12 *McLeansboro, April 16 *Shawneetown, April 26 Shawneetown, April 30 *Galatia, May 3 Galatia, May 9 McLeansboro. *Games to be played at Ridgeway.

Haney Permits Players to Make Own Rules

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves, who were accused of being the playboys of the National League last season, will be allowed to make their own training rules for this year—curfew time and everything else.

"But once the rules are made, they will have to stick to them," said Manager Fred Haney. Haney announced his "home rule" policy Wednesday in an effort to show his faith in his players' behavior. He said the Braves will hold a player meeting at Jacksonville, Fla., next week to decide on the team's rules.

Jackie Robinson, the ex-Dodger, was the first to accuse the Braves of too much night-clubbing in the pennant stretch last year, but Haney told his men Wednesday, "Ignore all these things you have heard and will continue to hear."

"I told them we are not running a reform school, but a ball club," said Haney, "and that they shouldn't pay any attention to all these stories."

Haney, who has been driving his players hard in spring training in an extra effort to get them in shape for a fast start in the regular season, denied that his club rules this year will be extra tough.

"They won't be a bit different from those prevailing on the other 15-major-league clubs," he said.

Spahn Hurls, Adcock Slugs Out 12-6 Victory Over Reds; Cards Blank Yankees, 1-0

By United Press

Warren Spahn, who wept unashamedly when the Milwaukee Braves lost the National League pennant on the next-to-last day of the 1956 season, was smiling again today.

So, too, was his hulking teammate, Joe Adcock, who never has been known to weep in public but knows how to make opposing pitchers cry.

The reason for Spahn's joy was a six-hit, seven-inning stint against his favorite "cousins," the Cincinnati Redlegs, Wednesday, at Tampa, Fla. and while Spahn was soft-soaping the Redlegs with his tricky

Expect 200 Coaches to Attend Spring Clinic at SIU Tomorrow

CARBONDALE, Ill.—An estimated 200 coaches are expected to attend the ninth annual spring coaching clinic at Southern Illinois University Friday, March 29.

Featured speakers will be Leo S. Schall, baseball coach at Bradley University; Clarence (Babe) Pierce, track coach at the Mounds Township high school; William Townes, track coach at the DeKalb high school; and Leland P. (Doc) Lingle and Paul Tretiak of the SIU coaching staff.

The morning session will begin at 9, with an afternoon session slated for 1:15. The conference will be divided into two sections; baseball and track. A joint banquet will be held at the Jackson County Country club Friday night.

A former professional baseball player, Schall's 1956 Bradley club won 26, while losing only 6, finishing third at the National College World Series at Omaha, Neb.

Townes last year coached prep star James Bowers, who set a new national high school mile run record with a time of 4:16.1. Pierce is well-known for his 17 years of track coaching at the Christopher schools before moving to Mounds this past year.

Lingle is head track coach at Southern, while Tretiak is assistant baseball coach.

Six Former Champs Lead Field into Ninth Annual Azalea Open Tournament

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)—Six former champions led a blue-ribbon field today into the ninth annual Azalea Open golf tournament in search of $12,500 in prizes and the competitive keenness needed for the famed Masters tournament next week at Augusta, Ga.

The former champs seeking an unprecedented second crown here were burly Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N. Y.; Henry Ransome, winner of the first Azalea in 1949;

Ed Furgol of St. Andrews, Ill., was counted out as a dark-horse in the tournament because of an automobile accident Wednesday. Furgol suffered a badly-bruised right knee and right arm, but the former U. S. Open champion said he would play.

Doug Ford of Mahopac, N. Y., the leading money-winner in the PGA this year with checks totaling $13,848, and Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., who has played in the money for 46 consecutive tournaments and leads in the tourney player standings, also are entered.

Arnold Palmer, the former Wake Forest college star from Lenoir, Pa., who is second to Ford in the bankroll department; sad-faced Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa.; and Bill Casper Jr., Bonica, Calif., all leading money winners, are entered.

Springfield (AP)—Herrin's state high school basketball champions, and Bradley University's national invitational tournament champions were honored Wednesday in the State Legislature.

The House adopted a resolution sponsored by Rep. Paul Powell (D-Vienna), congratulating the Herrin Tigers for their "indomitable courage" and "true sportsmanship" in overpowering the "finest teams in the state" on their way to the prep basketball championship.

The House also adopted a resolution sponsored by Rep. George Saal (D-Pekin) praising Bradley for its victory at New York as a "fitting climax to the ability and determination and fine leadership of the players and Coach Chuck Osborn."

Reds Depend on Hacker, Meyer

IN THE Sports Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Two aging veterans could spell the difference today for the pennant hopes of the Cincinnati Reds.

There is no question but what the burly Redlegs have the batting muscles. As usual, the problem is the pitching.

But Warren Hacker and Russ Meyer may supply the answer for a club which finished only two games back last season.

Word out of the spring training camps is that Hacker may do it all by himself. The big pitcher, obtained from the anemic Chicago Cubs in November, will find it a novelty being with a club which can get him some runs.

Only Eight Runs

He was only 3-13 last season, but small wonder. In seven of those unlucky 13 defeats the Cubs gave him a total of only eight runs. Earlier, when he lost eight in a row, the Cubs didn't get him a single run over a span of 30 innings.

There is doubt that even Bob Feller could win with such listless batting support and this accounted for Hacker's feeling that "I had to strike out everybody to win a game."

A sidearm fastball pitcher with an adequate knuckler, the 32-year-old Hacker has looked good in spring training.

Meyer, who also was obtained from the Cubs late last season, had a mere mark of one win against six losses last season. But the "Mad Monk" hurt his arm against Brooklyn in June and never was right thereafter.

"I've been throwing harder than at any time since then," he glows. "There's no pain and I believe I'm on my way to regaining my stride."

Won 17 in 1949

The 33-year-old Meyer, who won 17 games in 1949, also has something else going for him. Finally he contends, he has learned to control the explosive temper which provided his nickname.

"When I got mad, I started throwing instead of pitching," he admits. "It was no way to be and I had to learn to control myself. I think I've done it."

If he has, even at this stage of his career, Meyer could be a surprise benefit to the pitch-poor Red legs.

Hacker is the big hope to provide the winning difference and could be the deciding factor of the pennant race. Anything Meyer contributed would be that much gravy.

of dollars holding back the power of nature.

Sin beats on the ways of man. Time after time man gives in to satanic power with little attempt to resist. We excuse ourselves for our transgressions by saying "It was normal or natural." Such flimsy excuses give us little spiritual satisfaction.

God has given to everyone a power to resist. He has given us a way which makes resistance to temptation easy. Salvation thru God's forgiveness holds back the beating force of sin and gives personal satisfaction.

AMERICA'S NUMBER ① ROAD CAR!

Drive the Champ!

First the automotive writers said, "Keep your eye on Pontiac... this one's a sleeper!" Then the California Highway Patrol chose Pontiac after three days of grueling competitive tests of six of America's top performers. Next, in the top stock car event of the year, NASCAR's 160-mile Daytona Grand National*, Pontiac outperformed everything on the beach including super-charged and fuel injection cars!

NOW IT'S YOUR TURN—Slip into that roomy driver's seat. Gently nudge the accelerator and feel Pontiac's barrel-chested 347 cu. in. Strato-Streak V-8 go into action. Put its instant response and Precision-Touch Control to a traffic test. Choose your own rough stretch and feel it disappear under Pontiac's Level-Line Ride. Then head for the open road and give that deep-breathing power plant a chance to show its mettle in the fresh open air. Man—you've got a champ on your hands for sure! And to make it even more fun—there's a chance to win a free Pontiac! Just follow the instructions at the right—you may be a winning driver!

HERE'S ALL YOU DO!
